—A FULL LINE OF—

Music Boxes, Best Italian Strings, Music Books and Binders, Sheet Music, Etc., Etc.

Also a Fine Stock of Fancy Goods.

All Kinds of Games and Toys.

As a specialty in the Piano line, I would recommend most heartily the Hardman Piano!

A fine tone, finely finished, first-class instrument in every respect; they are not the cheapest Pianos, but within the reach of all who really desire something that will last a lifetime. TRY THEM.

They are fully warranted for SEVEN YEARS.

SHODDY PIANOS AND ORGANS,

so largely advertised like patent medicine, and like it, good for everything and nothing in particular, I DO NOT KEEP IN STOCK. I cannot afford to sell them, as I live too near home. But if desired, I am prepared to furnish any of these cheap Pianos and Organs at eastern prices, save freight, provided I am not held responsible. In connection with this I will state that my Organs contain 5 full octaves of Reeds, to one set, and do not call a single octave of reeds, a full set, as advertised by shoddy makers and dealers.

I sell Pianos and Organs on Monthly and Quarterly Payments; also for cash, with small extra discount. Send for circulars. Address

Six Hearts Beating as One.

Dr. F. E. Stephens, of Shenandoah, arrived at the Oyden yesterday in company with Miss Maggie Patten, of Woodbine, and the arrival of the Washburn train a few hours later were joined by their friends, Mr. G. W. Taylor and Miss Mary E. Harris, both of Shenandoah. Rev. Mr. Armstrong, of the Methodist church, was then summoned to the parlors and a double wedding took place, Miss Patten becoming Mrs. Stephens and Miss Harris Mrs. Taylor. The ceremony was brief but gay and as well as impressive, and both couples have many friends who will improve the opportunity to congratulate them and offer well wishes. The wedded ones left for Omaha last evening.

Last evening Mr. James B. Ingersoll, a well known railway man of Boone, arrived here with Miss Clara B. Tidman, a well known young lady of that place, and accompanied by a number of Boone friends, the party proceeded to the residence of Rev. J. Z. Armstrong, on Madison street, where the clergyman performed the marriage ceremony, clearing with introducing Mr. and Mrs. Inggersoll to the friends present, who congratulated them most heartily. The bride has been a warm friend of Mr. Armstrong and family and a member of the church, Dr. Inggersoll was pastor there, which was one of the main reasons for the marriage and have him perform the ceremony.

Another State.

A now apparently taking suggestion is now made as to what may be the outcome of the changes on the bench. It is said that Hon. Jno. Y. Stone is to be appointed to take Judge Reed's place and that will spoil the other slate completely. The conjecture is given like the other for what it is worth. Judge Aylesworth, of the Superior court, has been declared by some to be the best fitted man of Pottawattamie county, but he is a Democrat, which virtually bars him out.

The Flying Bee in Malvern.

MALVERN, Oct. 25.—This place has a population of 1,200 wide-a-wake peop'e.

Corn picking will soon be in order in this locality.

The telephone lines here are doing a good business.

A mask skate was enjoyed by the young folks last Thursday evening.

The Presbyterians have placed a street lamp in front of their church, to the convenience of the church going people.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Malvern Fair association occurs next Saturday.

The Musical Union, a talented home society, gave another of their delightful open air entertainments Monday evening.

Rev. A. Rhodes, pastor of the Baptist church has accepted a call to the pastorate of a similar church at Sidney, a town which will soon remove hence.

The Baptist church building is receiving a fresh coat of paint.

W. R. Barnes a well to do citizen living adjacent to this place, was still in a paralytic state a week ago.

The postoffice at Clark, in one of the out towns, has just been discontinued and the postmaster on hands transferred to its colleague.

James Bone, of Henderson, delivered a car load of logs of his own raising to the packing house Monday, the average weight being 204 pounds. Tricity good.

The packing house here opened up for the season last Friday under very favorable circumstances. They employ constantly about the establishment about fifty men.

Quite a serious accident last Thursday involved Alfred Bellwood, a farmer living a few miles out of town. While driving up hill the wagon double teams broke and the wagon started down hill backwards, and in getting out Mr. Bellwood was broken.

The Central House is having an addition built to accommodate its extensive custom.

Kendall's troupe is to play here three nights this week, beginning to-night.

A traveler entered the dining-room and sat down with his host. As he was about to attack the viands the head waiter asked him to take off his hat, and as he declined to do so the landlord came forward. That personage seized the hat and threw it out of doors. Thereat the guest arose just as a waiter was passing with a tray freighted with sumptuous dinner. He gave the tray a kick that sent the dishes flying toward the ceiling. The waiter seized the guest by the collar and the guest seized the waiter by the throat, and the landlord and the waiter knocked the guest over the dinner table. The table was upset and there was a crash, and the guest ran out to the nearest lawyer's office and entered a suit for the value of his hat.
